

entertaining and revealing," Gupta said the contradiction within the opposition's narrative is now evident. "On one hand Congress cries foul about stolen votes, on the other own alliance government in J&K enjoys mandate," he noted.

asserted that such contradictory posture of the opposition's "habitual double standard" where they criticise India's democratic process is for political mileage while simultaneously celebrating electoral victories. He urged citizens to recognise these tactics, describing the stance as "political theatrics to mislead." Highlighting the contrast between the Vision, credibility and results delivered by Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Under his leadership, the country has witnessed unprecedented development, transparent governance and strengthened electoral processes. "The opposition can make noise, but they cannot counter PM Modi's performance-oriented and results-driven approach," Gupta concluded.
